ART: First prize in mixed media for Fort Lee's Sklar

Fort Lee artist Jane Sklar won a first prize for mixed media at the 85th Annual Washington Square Outdoor Art Exhibit in Manhattan recently. Her piece, titled "Dancers 1," is based on fellow artist Max Cartagena's photography. The collaborative piece is embedded on aluminum. Sklar and Cartagena use a digital art process without Photoshop. The show evolved after Jackson Pollack and Willem de Kooning first sold their art near the park in 1931.
